PATENTS, American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON.

No. 22 State Street, Boston.

IN 1840 the subscriber was appointed, by the Commissioner of Patents, Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, in accordance with the 10th Sec. of Act of '37.

Having relinquished the Agency for the transmission of Models and adopted a more expeditious mode of sending them to the Patent Office, whereby a Patent may be procured about six weeks earlier, he continues to forward them free of expense—to prepare Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all the necessary Papers and Drawings for Patents, and to render advice on legal and scientific matters respecting the same. Patents secured in Europe and other countries.

By application at this office, inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. They also have the advantage of verbal explaining their inventions and of consulting in respect to them [illegible] of paramount importance in order to obtain correct specifications and claims. The experience of sixteen years' practice, an extensive collection of rare works, decisions, &c. on mechanical subjects, the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established, together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford to inventors desirous of procuring Patents assistance and information which in other respects it might be difficult to attain.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

WASHINGTON, JULY 31, 1850.—During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents R. H. EDDY, Esq. of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

Articles for the Toilet

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid

For Restoring, Preserving, and Embellishing the HAIR.

The following Certificate, from Dr. Winslow Lewis, one of the most eminent physicians of Boston, will show the estimation in which it is held by the scientific and learned, being one only of many similar ones.

Mr. Wm. Bogle,—Sir: The preparation invented by you for the hair, has been extensively used in my family, and they give it the decided preference over all other compositions of the kind. It invigorates and beautifies the hair, and cleanses the skin of all impurities, without producing any ultimate deleterious effects. [illegible] known patented [illegible]

Boston, Feb. 15, 1847. WINSLOW LEWIS.

It is an indispensable article for the toilet, as it keeps the hair in its place, and [illegible] the skin of the head free from dandruff and scurf. For children, it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

BOGLE'S AMOLE, A COMPOUND FOR SHAVING.

This delightful article is totally different and superior to anything yet invented for shaving. [illegible] derived from the Amole, or "soap plant" of California, an article used by the natives of that country for washing, and thus the use of strong alkali, so hurtful to the skin, is avoided. Its detergent and [illegible] properties have the pure [illegible] nourishing effects on the skin, it soothes and allays irritation, and as a fine, thick creamy lather, which does not dry on the face. It will become [illegible] cannot be [illegible] shaved with this incomparable soap. It is done up in [illegible] for the [illegible] traveller, or the toilet of the most fastidious connoisseur.

Bogle's Hebeatona,

FOR REFRESHING AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Eradicating Tan, Pimples, and other eruptions of the skin, and rendering it fair, delicate and blooming. It is equally efficient in preserving the skin from [illegible] of summer, and freckling blasts of winter, and is the most fragrant and delicious article to be found at the toilet of fashion.

All the above articles have stood the test of the strictest investigation, and are warranted superior to anything yet invented; but, if not found so, prove on trial, the money in all cases will be refunded by my agents. WILLIAM BOGLE, Proprietor, 277 Washington St. Boston, Mass.

MONDAY, JUNE 2, 1851.

☞ The New Orleans Bulletin, the leading Whig paper of Louisiana, and one of the most moderate, conservative and patriotic papers at the South, says:—"We assume, as a fixed fact that no Southern voter, whatever may be his political complexion, will vote for any candidate for the Presidency who is not in favor of the Compromise as it is, and who will not give some positive and reliable pledge that he will in no wise disturb it. We therefore tell our Whig friends, that if they entertain any such opinion, as has been advanced by a portion of the press, that the compromise, or, to use a more comprehensive expression, the slave question, will not be made a test question in the next presidential election, they are most egregiously mistaken. We love the Union beyond party or any conceivable political relation; we will stand by it with equal loyalty against the assaults of Southern Disunionists, or Northern Abolitionists, and we hold him its most dangerous enemy, who counsels or sanctions the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law. No man can be President of the United States who is not the staunch friend of the compromise."

New York Election.

The late elections in New York to fill the vacancies in the Senate, caused by the resignation of the twelve anti-canal enlargement Democrats, has resulted rather disastrously to the bolters. According to the accounts most favorable to those opposed to the enlargement, but six of the twelve Democratic bolters have been re-elected. Three have been superceded by Whigs, and three by enlargement Democrats. The New York Tribune claims five new Senators for the Whigs and the Albany Bulletin claim eight. Among the defeated is Henry B. Stanton, Free Soil Democrat, in the twenty-fifth district.

A New Lumbering Movement in Maine.

An enterprise has been started at Oldtown by Mr. Boody for lumbering upon the best timber lands on the Aroostook during the summer instead of the winter. There are some of the best pine logs in the State in that region, and the plan is to secure them to the Penobscot river mills and market. To do this the logs are to be cut and hauled this summer, and in the autumn freshet, run to and across a long lake, and during the next winter these logs are to be hauled from the shore of the lake to the Penobscot waters, a distance of four miles, and the next spring run to the mills.

☞ A good steel pen is a good thing; and about the best pen of this kind, which for fine writing exceeds any other contrivance is the "David Bugbee" pen manufactured for and imported by David Bugbee of this city. We have been luxuriating for a few days in the use of these pens and can scarcely refrain from cutting splendid flourishes they move so easily and leave so beautiful a trace. All who wish to write handsomely should get supplied with these pens.

Sounding the Gulf Stream. The United States sounding steamer Hetzell, Lieut. John Rodgers commanding, has been engaged in efforts to sound the Gulf Stream. At about 30 miles southwest from Key West, bottom was obtained at 730 fathoms; but at another point, the sounding line, at the depth of 3000 fathoms was cut off, as was supposed, by a sword fish. The sounding was continued, unsuccessfully, with a line of twine.

A Grandmother's Recollections. By Ella Rodman. New York: Charles Scribner. 1851. pp. 235.

Yes, here they are; childhood's days and sports all revived and made as fresh and bright as to-day's sunshine. The family circle reunited, rejuvenated and brought home again to the mind. Henry and Mary, and Lydia and Dick with their plump youthful faces; the store in the garret and the postoffice under the corner of the pig pen, and the little neighbor-girl with her fair red cheeks and sparkling black eyes. And father and mother, and the dear good grandmother, who like an angel of goodness and wisdom, gave counsel, and, with ever attentive hand and sympathising heart and proverbial philosophy! How freshly they all have come in glancing over the pages of this book of recollections. If any of the grey headed and sober minded, or the strong and busy middle aged wish for a while to go back to the glittering days of childhood and youth, let them take up this volume. If the young would learn how the same pastimes and incidents which interest them have interested those who have gone before; and how one's experience is the representative of the experience of all, let them read this book. The work is for sale at the bookstore of Messrs. E. F. Duren & Co.

Mr. Webster at Albany.

The Albany papers of Thursday describe the demonstration in honor of Mr. Webster, on Wednesday afternoon and evening, as a united tribute of respect paid by the city of Albany, without distinction of party, "to the man who in his support and maintenance, in its whole vigor and spirit, of the federal compact, as recognized and embodied in the great measures of adjustment, has signalized his devotion to the country, its tranquility and happiness."—An immense concourse of citizens gathered in front of Congress Hall in the afternoon, to hear Mr. Webster speak on the great topics now exciting public attention. He spoke to the assembled multitude for an hour and a quarter. Short addresses were afterwards made by Hon. Francis Granger, Gov. Hunt, and Hon. John C. Spencer. At half-past 5 o'clock a company numbering from one hundred and fifty to two hundred, sat down to a dinner complimentary to Mr. Webster provided by the young men of Albany at Congress Hall. The company comprised many distinguished citizens of Albany, a large number of the young men of the city, and several of the State officers. The entertainment is said to have surpassed anything of the kind ever given in Albany. Hon. John C. Spencer presided. After the removal of the cloth, Mr. Webster responded to a complimentary toast offered by the Chairman, and concluded his speech with this sentiment:

The young men of Albany—the young men of this generation and of succeeding generations—May they live forever; but may the Constitution of the Union outlive them all.

Speeches were also made by Gov. Hunt, Ex-Gov. Marcy, Hon. F. Granger, and others.—At 8 o'clock, the party broke up with nine cheers for Mr. Webster, the Constitution and the Union. A large party of citizens, with the Tivoli Hose Company, escorted Mr. Webster to the steamboat Hendrick Hudson. As he passed along, the sidewalks were thronged with people, and bonfires blazed in the streets.—Cheers rent the air as he went on board, and, the Albany Register remarks, "it might literally be said that he was borne away in triumph."—[Boston Trav.

The Commissioner of Pensions informs applicants for a re-issue of Bounty Land Warrants in lieu of originals lost, or destroyed, that they should forthwith enter a caveat at the General Land Office to prevent the issuing of patents to fraudulent claimants, and give public notice of the fact in newspapers, the intention should also be expressed to apply for a duplicate of such warrant minutely describing it.—The identity of the applicant must be established, and the facts upon which the application for a re-issue is based clearly set forth under oath. He must also state that he has never himself located nor employed any person to locate the warrant in question.

New York Correspondence.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

New York, May 28.

The very serious and sanguinary riot at Hoboken day before yesterday, is still "the talk" and cause of much excitement among certain classes, including Germans, Irish and that portion of the New York public who, pretty faithfully personated by "Mose," are always ready for a "muss."

The broken heads and loss of life and property in the Hoboken riot, are the least deplorable of the mischiefs resulting from that disgraceful encounter. It has vitalized an embryo feud between the native rowdies and the excitable portions of our German population, and some people are already looking for a renewal in this city, of the hostilities of Monday.

We have every reason to believe that, for some time to come, there will be numerous fights on a small scale between the opponents. The party evidently at fault in this matter are of the same class, and probably the same persons, that took active part in the Astor Place riot, which arose from a personal quarrel between Mr. Macready and Edwin Forrest.—Some of these fire-eaters called "Short Boys" or "Rock Boys," as was proved at the coroner's inquest yesterday, went over to the Elysian Fields (for the use of which the Germans had paid, and where, in celebration of their annual May Feast, they had congregated) and insulted the foreigners evidently with the premeditated purpose of having a fuss. Having been similarly interrupted in previous years in the like celebration, the Germans were prepared for them, and gave the rowdies a tremendous beating. Blinded by provocation, they also assaulted (as is usual in riots) many innocent persons. Subsequently the "Rock Boys" obtained large reinforcements of Irish and others, and way-laying the Germans about dusk as in detached parties they were returning to their homes, fell upon them with murderous fury.—These very rowdies were the very men whom Justice Bonning afterwards deputed to arrest the rioters, and as a natural consequence, the 63 or 60 persons consigned to jail were nearly all Germans.

We have had a shower every Tuesday night for the last three or four weeks. It has rained, too, every Sunday for six weeks past, except last Sabbath, which was fair throughout. Of course we ought to be grateful for those showers, especially as that unless they come frequently we should be suffocated with the dust, of which (owing to the numerous demolitions of old buildings, and repairs on the streets) there is a greater profusion than usual this spring.

Steamship Winfield Scott will depart hence for New Orleans next Monday, with Stimson & Co.'s Express freight. She makes the run in one week.

Justice Bleakly had a queer case of alleged forgery yesterday. John McIntosh, a man of some standing and property refusing to pay a note for $2,646, bearing his endorsement, on the ground that it was a forgery, his son, a good looking young man, was arrested for the crime. The father refused to testify, and was committed to prison for contempt of court. After a few hours confinement he promised to testify and was brought upon the stand. He had endorsed two notes for his son, in blank, but the amount of neither of them was to be so large as claimed, and he therefore doubted the genuineness of the note now in court.

The magistrate has the matter under consideration until this afternoon, when he will probably dismiss the complaint.

Jenny Lind's "comin thro' the Rye," makes no wry faces, I assure you. The lads and lasses are in ecstasies with it. She sings again to-night at Tripler Hall. Judging from the crowd around the ticket office, places are in as great demand as ever. Pretty good seats may be had for two dollars, and standees (anything but an easy stand) for one dollar.

An object of interest among Dr. Spring's wealthy congregation last Sunday, was a man in his shirt sleeves—a check shirt at that—who had been given a seat in one of the best pews on the broad aisle. From his weather beaten appearance, I suppose he was a mariner. Another person who attracted some attention, was a singularly intellectual yet nervous looking man, with curly black hair, deep black eyes, and a face not old, yet strangely marked with the lines of study and care. It was the Hon. Rufus Choate, of Boston, the famous pleader, who is without an equal before a jury, and is now engaged in the "Great Methodist Case."

After week or two of depression, the stock market begins to improve a little.

Daniel Webster will address the citizens of Albany, and our people to-morrow or next day.

Charles Sumner, the abolition Senator of Massachusetts, seems to have puzzled the politicians at Washington after his election, first by his anti-agitation letter of acceptance, and next by his denunciation of the "National Whig party." If they knew the man better, they would not be surprised at any of his eccentricities."

True Courtesy. Manners are often of more importance than laws. Upon them in a great measure, the laws depend. The law can touch us here and there now and then. Manners are what vex or sooth, corrupt or purify, exalt or debase, barbarise or refine, by a constant, steady uniform, insensible operation, like that of the air we breathe in. They give their whole form and colors to our lives. According to their quality they aid morals, they supply them or totally destroy them.—Burke.

The Dunce vs. the Man of Genius. Above all, away with the cabalistic nonsense of the prerogative of genius, the predominance of the natal star. If the plea of inability to rise above his nature is good for the dunce, it is good for the knave also. For anything that I can see, we can control our intelligence as well, within a very little, as we can our morality. For myself I declare solemnly, and I will say it for the comfort of self-condemned dunces, that if I were to begin life anew without any other experience than the certainty, such as I now hold it, of intellectual quasi-perfectibility, I would choose to begin it as a dunce rather than as a boy of genius. The certainty that I have spoken of would sustain me, and animate me, and nerve me in my endeavors to improve myself from the lowest to the highest rank, and I should have all the pleasure of the pursuit—an inestimable pleasure, in such a region,—together with the conscious anticipation of success, the assurance of the crowning glory.

Important from Trinidad de Cuba.

The New York Express has received dates to May 12. An overland express from Honduras, N. E. end of this island, reached Santa Cruz 10th inst., stating that two steamers and an armed brig were seen off Mataguetta on the 9th. This intelligence was immediately despatched by a special courier to Havana, which will cause increased activity on the part of the authorities in repelling the foe.

It is generally believed that these vessels seen were manned by invaders, headed by the notable Lopez. If they are on a hostile mission, and captured, every man of them will be instantly dispatched.

Weather very fine, and Sugar and Molasses nearly all gone.

The following is a list of vessels in port:—Brigs Thomas F. Knox, Smith, of and for Boston, to sail May 13; Charles Heath, Putnam, from Kingston, Jam., for Boston, arrived 7th and to sail on the 16th; Osceola, Waters, from Navy Bay, for New York, to sail in two days.

Cholera.

The St. Louis Republican states that the cholera has broken out in various towns in the interior of Indian. At Jerseyville nine deaths had occurred in a few hours, and the excitement was so great that the Circuit Court, which was in session, adjourned.

New York, May 30.

It was rumored on 'Change this P. M., that £800,000 bills on London, drawn by various firms in this city, would be returned, and that reclamations to a large amount would be made. The rumor makes some talk in the street.

New Orleans, May 27.

Texas advices to May 22d are at hand. There had been a fight in the woods, between some Indians and a detachment of U. S. troops in which five of the latter were killed.

Mr. Webster's Speech.

New York, May 20.

Mr. Webster's speech at Albany occupies three columns of the morning papers.

Reported Failures.

New York, May 30.

Several failures are rumored in the Cotton trade.

☞ A Catholic priest, 110 years of age, preached at Dayton, Ohio, a few days ago.

☞ We are pained to learn the death of Joseph Barnhill, aged 27, a printer, yesterday forenoon. He has been employed in the Mercury office, and was formerly from the Provinces.

Ahead of his age.

The humorous sketcher of the Pennsylvanian, who is hard to beat in his line, gives the following description of a scene between a precocious youth and the Mayor of Philadelphia, in the city court:

The watchman presented Master George C. Huntley to the Mayor, and the information that he had formed the acquaintance of Master George last night, while the young gentleman was endeavoring to introduce himself informally to some ladies on Walnut street, who appeared to be very much alarmed at his advances.

Master George is probably about 14 years of age; but his dress, air, and manners, and especially a certain rakish swagger which he seems to affect, would be more becoming for a person ten or twelve years older.

Mayor. Do you live with your parents, George?

George. No sir, (with emphasis,) I board in Green st., Northern Liberties.

Mayor. Are you learning a trade?

George. No, sir, I have learned my trade, long ago.

Mayor. Long ago, eh! Pray what trade is it?

George. Sir, I am a vocalist.

Mayor. Have you no father or mother living?

George. I believe I have a mother, sir, somewhere over in Southwark, but my professional engagements are so numerous that I never have time to inquire after her.

Mayor. Of what nature are those professional engagements?

George. I sing comic and sentimental songs for the entertainment of the company at different hotels; and occasionally, when suitable inducements are offered, I assist at minor concerts.

Mayor. Do you manage your own business and money affairs?

George. Certainly, sir. A man in my circumstances cannot afford to keep a treasurer or a business agent.

Mayor. Ahem! Do tell me what is your age?

George. I was fourteen, last August.

Mayor. Have you never understood that it required a growth of twenty-one years to make a man in this country.

George. Oh, that is the old system, sir. All that sort of prejudice was exploded long ago. The rising generation have introduced a new rule. Manhood now depends on development. Some are more of the man at twelve years old than others at five-and-thirty. There is my friend, John Peters; he's about my age and he was engaged to be married three years ago.

Mayor. Take the boy down and endeavor to find his mother.

DEAFNESS CURED.

Dr. HAWKES, of the firm of Drs. Hawkes & Turnbull, and late practising Surgeon in the Royal Ear Infirmary, London) will visit Bangor on the 19th of June, where he may be consulted on all diseases of the Ear daily (Friday and Sunday excepted) from 9 till 12, and from 2 till 6. When the ear is perfect in its formation, Deafness can always be cured. A long and extensive practice in one of the best institutions in Europe, and the unprecedented success which has attended his efforts in numerous cases which had baffled all other treatment, is perhaps the best recommendation he can offer to those suffering from Deafness. Early application is necessary, as his engagements in other northern towns will make his stay of limited duration, say between one and two months; and time is of the utmost importance. Operations give no pain. Residence made known on arrival. Office in Kneeland street, Boston, and Chambers street, New York. d1m je2

Bliss's Compound Cod Liver Oil Candy.

A friend of ours the other day replied to a suggestion of ours thus, "I never can do it, I never can swallow one drop of that Cod Liver Oil, if I die of consumption." And this was said by a young man troubled with a pretty obstinate cold. We advised him to try Bliss's Cod Liver Oil Candy, and he accepted our advice and procured several packages of it. The consequence was that in a few weeks he was entirely cured of his cold. He remarked to us that he found the Candy perfectly palatable, and that, after using it for a short time he acquired quite a fondness for it. Reader, if you have a cold try the same article, but beware of counterfeits. Prepared only by E. K. BLISS, Druggist, Springfield, Mass. Price 25 cents a package. TELEGRAPHIC

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

New York, May 31.

Steamer Cleopatra seized by Government on charge of violating neutrality law; and since held by a guard of Marines, was last evening given up by Mr. O'Sullivan in consequence of an affidavit of that gentleman and a communication from Hon. Daniel Webster.

An entertainment was given on board the steamer and among the toasts was

"The Union—a little more of it."

Brig Santiago from Port au Prince, 18th inst. brings six days later news.

Emperor of Hayti has issued an address whereby he hopes to settle amicably all difficulties with the Dominicans.

Coroners jury on Hoboken riot cases rendered verdict severly censuring rowdies known as "Short Boys" they also say a portion of Germans called "Turners" were also to blame. Nearly all persons arrested have been discharged for want of sufficient proof to hold for trial.

From Mexico.

New Orleans, May 23.

The steamer Alabama has arrived in five days from Vera Cruz, bringing $28,000 in specie.

Both Houses of the Mexican Congress, by a large majority, annulled the Tehuantepec grant to Gary, and in the Senate the Tehuantepec treaty was laid on the table. A motion was made to impeach Lacalsen for negotiating the grant.

They refused to modify the tariff by removing prohibitory duties. Congress adjourned on the 20th.

A letter from a well informed source says another revolution appears close at hand. The Yucatan Legislature earnestly invokes the aid of Mexico to terminate the Indian War.

The steamer Georgia from Havana, has just arrived, with 358 passengers, including 65 for New York.

Canadian Commerce.

Albany, May 30.

On Wednesday, six barges laden with dressed lumber, were dispatched from Montreal to the U. S., two of which proceeded direct to New York without reshipment. This believed to be the first attempt made for a direct communication inland with New York.
